EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

PLANNING TECHNICIAN

Location: Dawson City, YT

*A Dawson City resident is preferred. However, for the right candidate, it may be possible for this position to work out of the Yukon Land Use Planning Council office in Whitehorse.

Start Date: September 2, 2014 (negotiable)

Term: Four months (September 2 to December 31, 2014) with possibility of extension depending on funding availability

Salary: $61,603 - $74,348 per year (based on full-time 37.5 hours per week)

*Flexible and/or reduced hours are possible for the right candidate (our previous Planning Tech worked 25 hours/week).

The Dawson Regional Planning Commission (DRPC) is an independent six-member body established in 2010, under Chapter 11 of the Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in Final Agreement. Our job is to create a vision for the future use and development of land in the Dawson region, and provide direction to Yukon and First Nations governments on how to manage land and resources. We are a small but hardworking team that strives to find creative solutions to complex issues, and is committed to open and transparent decision-making.

Do you have a background in land use planning, environmental sciences, geography, natural resource management, or a related field? Do you have excellent communications skills and value community engagement? Do you have graphics design, publishing, website management, and/or GIS experience? Are you known for your organizational skills and attention to detail? Are you self-motivated and set a high standard of excellence for yourself? Then we look forward to hearing from you!

Got most of these skills but not all? We'd still like to hear from you!

A complete job description is available at our office in Dawson (on 2nd Avenue, next to Home Hardware) or on our website at <http://dawson.planyukon.ca>

If you feel you have the qualifications and desire to meet the challenges of this position, please provide a cover letter and resumé on or before AUGUST 10, 2014 to:
